AO DUAL VIEWING MICROSTAR®

with Exclusive Illuminated Pointer

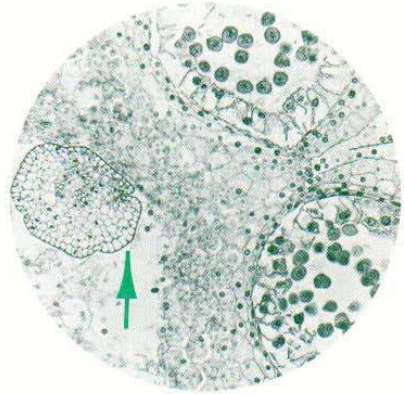

The new Dual Viewing Microstar offers the many advantages of simultaneous observation. Both viewers enjoy the same superb image quality . . . at all magnifications . . . from scanning to oil immersion objectives. New infinity-corrected, flat-field achromatic objectives, unique compensating achromatic telescope coupled with well-balanced eyepieces, conventional Abbe type condenser, and efficient in-base illuminator all combine to make the Dual Viewing Microstar an outstandingly versatile instrument.

This special microscope has almost unlimited applications — for conferences between pathologist and staff, in training technicians and for teaching specialized techniques in research and routine laboratory methods. It can prove to be an important teaching aid for all the biological sciences.

Exclusive
ILLUMINATED POINTER

An integral part of the Dual Viewing Microstar is the Dual Viewing Adapter with its illuminated pointer in the form of a transparent green arrow. Having universal movement, the projected arrow can be instantly positioned to pinpoint any specific area of the field of view. Use with the standard No. 1051 transformer. Double socket end permits simultaneous use of No. 1036 in-base illuminator.
